Give your business a strong and fresh image.

A solid brand image can boost your business. It can attract the right target, expand the customer base and make a brand recognizable in the eyes of people. It can convey the brand's values and make it gain a special position in the mind of clients.

With the right solutions and the right business partner you can give your business a whole new strength! A solid marketing strategy, a well-balanced planning or an impactful communication are just some examples of what you can achieve with a strong and effective brand image.

Do you want to know more? Just keep on reading to discover some simple steps to give your business the spring it deserves.

Make sure your brand image is consistent.

Build a brand manual. That's the first thing to think about, the golden rule to take care of your brand identity and ensure it has a consistent impact on all your communication channels.

Where to start from? Dos and Don'ts!

Here are some questions you should ask yourself to understand if you're managing your brand identity correctly.

What can and cannot be done with your logo and other visual elements?

What's your official typography font and how it must be used across different supports (emails, web page, social media and so on)?

How does your brand image work across social media, website and, printed materials?

How to reflect your brand values in verbal and visual language?

In order to build consistency no one of these steps can be missed. Are you wondering what advantage investing in the structuring and consolidation of your brand image can bring you?

Try to do this: put yourself in the shoes of today's consumers and think about how many new brands they come into contact with every day. How many images are seen on social media, how many newsletters are received. Being recognized in a crowd is a long and tiring job, but with the right resources nothing is impossible.

Create messages people want to read.

Engage. That's the keyword. People listen to the story you want to tell. But to get them involved, you have to emerge in the right way, with the appropriate language.

It's a key aspect of your strategy: flyers, posters, brochures and any other support you choose for your plan have very specific visual and verbal codes. Adopting a language that is consistent with their requirements helps you harness the potential and be more effective.

So, of course, consistency is crucial for engagement.

But always accompanied by another fundamental ingredient: CREATIVITY.

Here are some tips to create effective communication materials:

BUILD A VISUAL IMPACT OUT OF THE BOX

Try different combinations of colors, fonts and graphics to build an eye-catching layout.

CREATE A DISTINCTIVE LANGUAGE

Dare with messages and create a style that reflects your brand values, without being afraid to take some risks when it comes to creativity.

TALK TO THE NEEDS OF YOUR CUSTOMERS

Create a communication that combines the benefits of your products or services with the needs of people. Creating the right match makes it easier to hit the target!

Create a story people want to hear. Give your communication maximum impact with MBE Print and Marketing Solutions.

Turn your packing into an experience.

The promise you make to your customers, the experience they will have thanks to you. This is what you sell. Even before your product or service. What immediately reaches people is the idea you give of your brand.

In one word: Packing! It's the business card for your products.

What you say with packing is crucial to your customers' purchasing process.

Here are the decisive elements to play your cards right:

A BEAUTIFUL DESIGN

The color, the graphic style, the premium feel. Packing gives free rein to creativity. Mixing these ingredients the right way helps you catch people's eye and impress your customers.

SUSTAINABLE MATERIALS

Being eco-friendly is crucial and strategic nowadays. People are asking for reusable materials and plastic-free packing. If you want to stay relevant and competitive you should go green as soon as possible.

Do you want to boost effectiveness? Enrich your packing with personalized gadgets or unexpected gift boxes! Anniversaries and holidays can be a perfect opportunity to enhance your look in the eyes of your customers.

Create impactful packing with MBE Print and Marketing Solutions.

Be ready to refresh.

Is the market constantly changing? Yes. What about you?

You know you have to keep up, but how to do that properly? Your logo, your brand assets, your image need to stay fresh and relevant to your target customer, because their taste changes over time at astonishing speed, and a good branding strategy must be able to predict this, helping you to react at the right time.

Want examples of what you can do? Here are three tips for you.

LOGO

Always keep it modern and in line with changing trends. Your logo must always be able to best express the values of the brand, which can evolve over time.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Spice up your communication with ever-new creative ideas, riding the trends that are created in social networks.

SHOP WINDOWS

Schedule a regular refresh that highlights seasonal content, marketing campaigns, etc., to make your shop windows perform at their best.

The loyalty of your customers also depends on your ability to renew yourself. Show what you can do. Updating your way of communicating certainly doesn't mean being inconsistent with your identity. A business that always knows how to renew itself to follow its audience shows that it has people's needs at heart.
